Students and Scholars

THE OFFICE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS

The Office for International Students and Scholars (OISS) serves as the primary support unit for nonimmigrants who study, conduct research or teach at Michigan State University (MSU). MSU has a rich tradition of hosting academic visitors from abroad and they comprise an important part of the MSU campus culture.

The OISS staff brings a wealth of experience to the issues that international students and scholars commonly encounter. It is a privilege for the OISS staff to serve MSU's international community. The services that OISS provides include:

- Advising on and facilitating compliance with U.S. immigration regulations.
- Conducting orientations and other special programming that help international students and scholars acclimate and adjust to the academic, cultural and social life of MSU.
- Serving as a liaison with U.S. government agencies, foreign embassies, sponsors, and educational foundations that support international students and scholars.

- Contributing to the internationalization of MSU by providing opportunities for growth through cross-cultural interactions.

MSU is home to more than 50,000 students, including more than 7,000 students and scholars from more than 130 countries from around the world. OISS is a part of International Studies and Programs (ISP) and is located in the International Center. As a student and scholar support unit, OISS contributes to ISP's mission to mobilize people across borders to increase international understanding, open opportunities for international education, and bring international talent to the MSU community.

OISS facilitates long-standing featured programs throughout the year that help to internationalize the campus and community. Featured programs include Weekly Coffee Hour, East Lansing Welcomes the World, Global Festival, International Student Essay Contest, Learning Abroad Conference, Globie Awards, & Intercultural Communication Training. For a full list of activities, go to oiss.msu.edu.

A YEAR IN NUMBERS

2017 STATISTICAL HIGHLIGHTS

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

During fall semester 2017, Michigan State University enrolled 6,847 international students. This represents a 72% growth over the last 10 years. The international enrollment story at Michigan State University continues to be the significant enrollment of Chinese undergraduates. Although there was a decline in the number of enrolled undergraduate students from China this fall, there was a relatively significant increase in undergraduate students from Malaysia, India, and the United Arab Emirates. Graduate student enrollment remains steady with a relatively significant decrease in students from Saudi Arabia, Taiwan, and Canada, and a relatively significant increase in students from India, South Korea, and Pakistan.

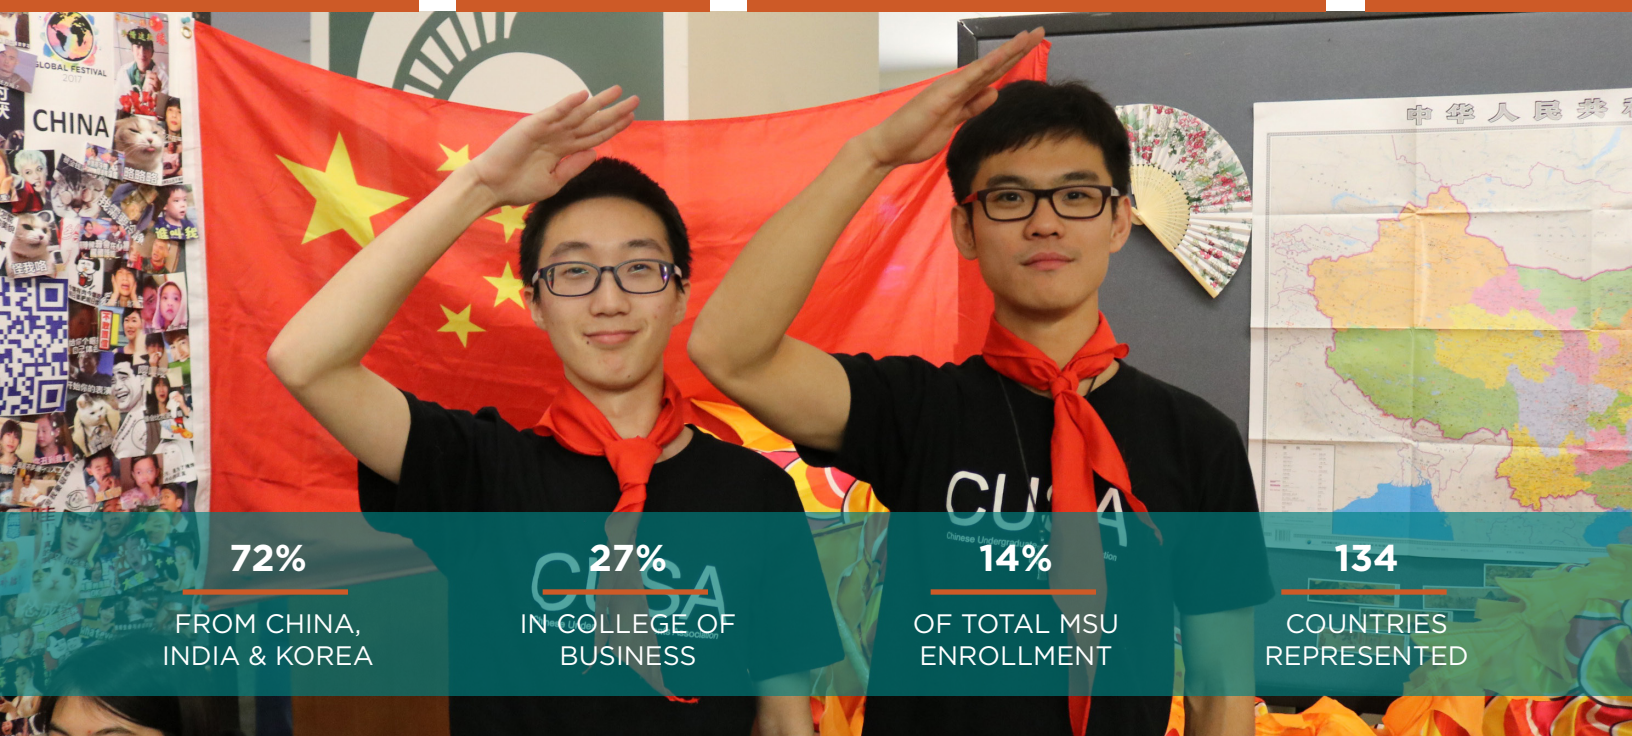

OTHER TRENDS WORTH NOTING

- The Colleges of Business (2,353), Engineering (1,625), Natural Science (1,055), and Social Science (936) continue to enroll the largest numbers of international students annually.
- Funding from the MasterCard Foundation supported one-third of graduate and undergraduate students from African countries.

- The number of students receiving sponsorship from their governments, the U.S. government or other home organizations fell from 620 students in fall of 2016 to 600 students in fall of 2017. This is due to the contraction or closing of funding programs from Saudi Arabia, Brazil, Iraq, Libya, and Vietnam.
- According to the Institute of International Education's annual Open Doors Report, MSU is ranked sixteenth in the nation for our number of international students.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

According to the formula used by NAFSA: Association of International Educators, during the 2017–2018 academic year, international students contributed $341.6 million to the Greater Lansing Area and supported 4,715 jobs. Economic impact reports on international students in the U.S. can be found using the NAFSA International Student Economic Value Tool.
